THE SECOND HUNDRED YEARS AT OBERLIN

Oberlin is a lady of many aspects. In autumn she is gypsy-like, ruddy-faced and black-haired, with the smell of woodsmoke and autumn leaves upon her. In winter she is queenly and delicate, robed in white lace and ermine. In spring she is dewy-eyed and radiant, glamorous with the eternal allure of Spring. And then, there is always the Oberlin of rain when, damp and disheveled, she is like nothing so much as a worn-out washerwoman.

Oberlin is a lady of many moods. She sometimes is given to hard study and serious thought, cultural expansion and intellectual growth. At other times she turns to gaiety, laughter, and sport. Often she is the Oberlin of deeper friendliness, of joyous communion of soul with soul, and the more joyous union of soul with God. Also, like the best of friends, she sometimes frowns and is gloomy.

And which is the Oberlin that we shall keep? Perhaps a larger, all-embracing Oberlin—an Oberlin of growth and play, of learning and labor, of light moments and dark, of shadows strengthening the sunshine—an Oberlin composite of her many moods and aspects, but always with a sure and imperious claim upon our love.

—Laurence Perrine, '37.

THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS

Arrival of the first four women into college education — beginning of co-education on the college level.

Oberlin financial mission to England saved the college from bankruptcy and extended its horizons.

Charles Grandison Finney, evangelist orator, leading spirit and president of Oberlin.

AT OBERLIN

The "Underground Railroad" and the Oberlin-Wellington Rescue Case.

Oberlin's part in the war for the slave and social reconstruction.

James Harris Fairchild, the "most beloved teacher" of Oberlin.

Madam A. A. F. Johnston, Dean of Women and college Builder.

Anti-Saloon League. Oberlin does battle against the Demon Rum.

Oberlin in China—"The Blood of Martyrs is the Seed of the Church."

Henry Churchill King, "Guide, Philosopher, and Friend."

Charles Martin Hall makes clay into aluminum and good-will into gold.

Another idealistic war—battles in the Chapel, in Italy, in France, and the Men's Building.

Oberlin peace activities: "Rational Patriotism" and the Peace Society of the 30's.

After three-quarters of a century of segregation, co-ed seating is in Chapel as well as classroom.

But, after ninety-eight years of co-education, segregated football seating is urged.

THE PRESENT IS THE HOPE OF THE FUTURE

Forty-four years of progress for the YWCA. From an employment agency, a freshman reception committee, a Bible study group to an active, busy organization with religious conferences, student-faculty discussions, vespers, recreation, crafts, music and poetry appreciation, social action, community work, and local and intercollegiate conferences among its activity.

Not only has the YMCA revived the old Oberlin Bike Club, but it has aided in the supervision of many campus activities this year: Committees appointed to handle this work being; the Freshman Men's Club, the Sophomore Commission, Vespers, Children's Home, Publicity, Deputations, Social Action, Community Boys, Outing Club, Recreational, Student Volunteer, and Religious Literature committees.

FORENSIC UNION

An early L.L.S. member

On July 21, 1835, was organized "The Young Ladies Association of the Oberlin Collegiate Institute for the promotion of literature and religion," later shortened to "Ladies' Literary Society," now known as "L.L.S.". The charter members handed down as heritage these carved walnut chairs, the attainment of college graduation for American women, and the matchless wit of Mary Atkins '45, who in reply to Charles G. Finney's greeting, "Good morning, daughter of the devil," answered with due respect to a clergyman, "Good morning, father".

MUMMERS

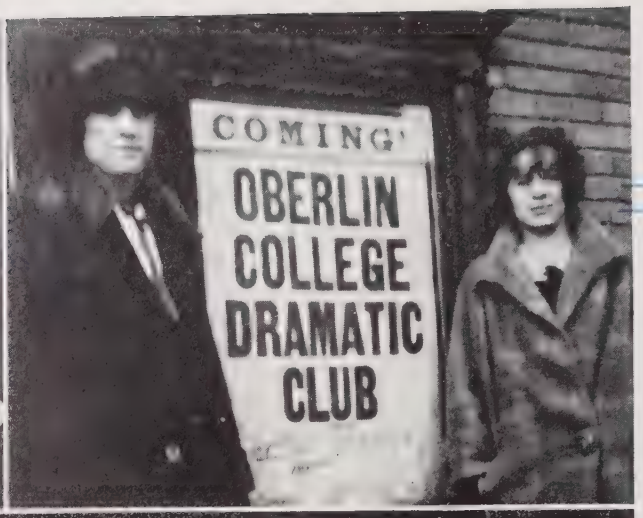

MUMBLINGS OF 1938 WITH THE TYROMANIAC

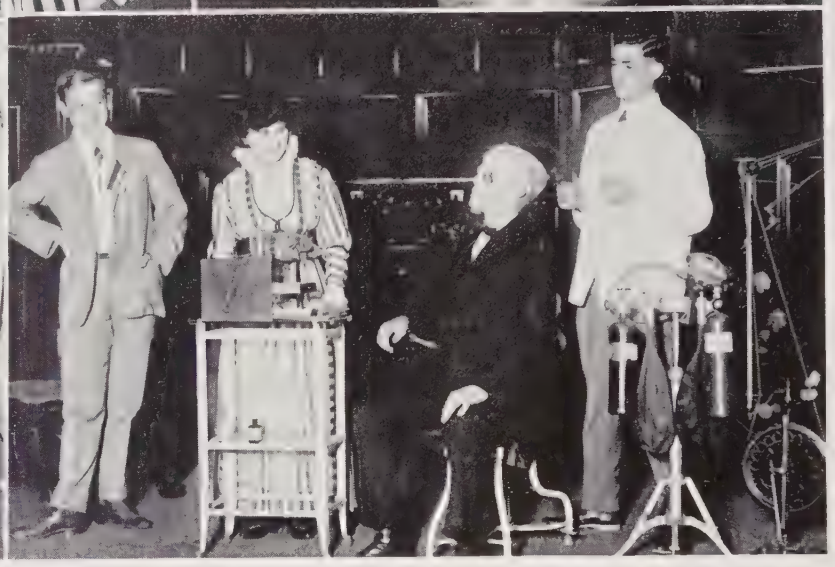

Doctor Barton P. Barnes: I adore you with all the ardor of my psychoanalysed, un-introverted, -extroverted, and -controverted being. I'm crazy about you.

Nurse Pruny Hinks: Yes, Kitten. Bruise me, baby!

Hepplethwaite: All this fuss just because I got tired of doing the same old things all the time and started collecting ties for fun. They're crazy if they think I'm crazy.

Turning from Shakespeare to Shaw was one of the early accomplishments of the Dramatic Association. All drama written by men other than Shakespeare was forbidden, until Professor Artz, as a student, appeared in Shaw's "You Never Can Tell."

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Virginia P. Van Fossan Helen E. Strawbridge

Half a dozen alumni founded the Alumni Association in 1839. Today over 25,000 graduates and former students cover the world. One-tenth of these receive monthly the Oberlin Alumni Magazine.

To their influence and affection for Oberlin we owe the cosmopolitan character of our student body.

FOR OBERLIN'S
YEOMEN

In 1918 the varsity tennis team lost to Chicago U., defeated Ohio State once, and Wooster twice.

The Yeomen of the early 1900's—then as now—were Ohio Conference champions. The first Big Six meet, held in 1903, ended with Oberlin in first place, followed by Case, Ohio State, Western Reserve, Kenyon, and Ohio Wesleyan.

Oberlin's gridiron heroes of 1892 set an enviable record, scoring 262 points to their opponents 30. They defeated Ohio State 50 to 0, Western Reserve 38 to 8, as well as downing Ohio Wesleyan, Michigan, and Kenyon.

The season of 1898 was almost as successful; Cornell handed the Yeomen their only defeat, while Baldwin-Wallace, Marietta, Ohio Wesleyan, Cincinnati, Western Reserve, Case, and Purdue were Oberlin victims.

1901 was a good year for Oberlin basketball—the Yeomen vanquished Case, Western Reserve, and Hiram, while they also twice defeated Chicago U. and Ohio Wesleyan.

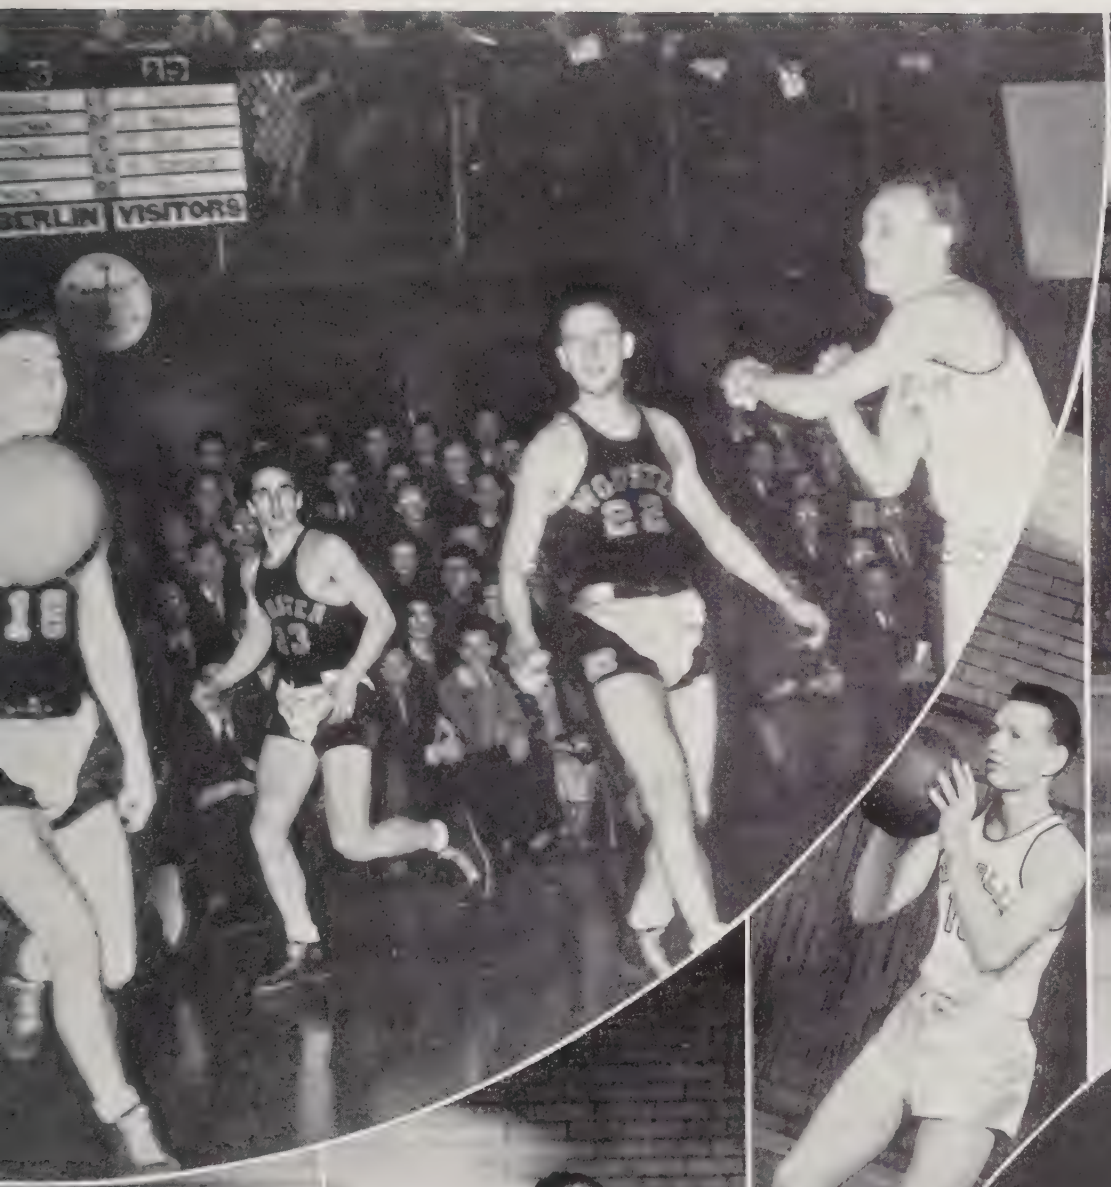

Coached by the immortal Glen "Crip" Gray and captained by Dr. J. H. Nichols, present head of Oberlin athletics, the basketball team of 1911 won ten games, lost two. Ohio State, Wooster, Syracuse, Kenyon, and Rochester were among the opponents to fall before the Oberlin onslaught.

A Man and a Co-ed for each Decade

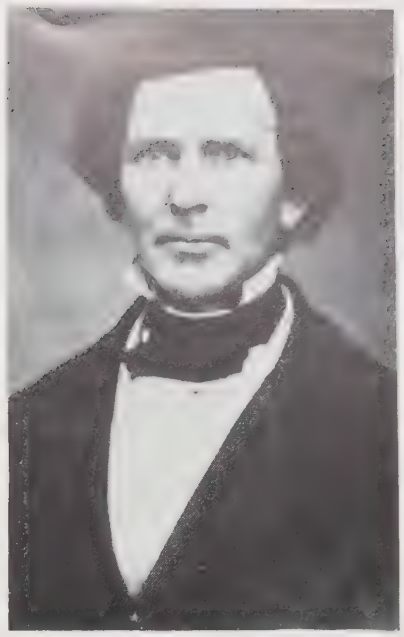

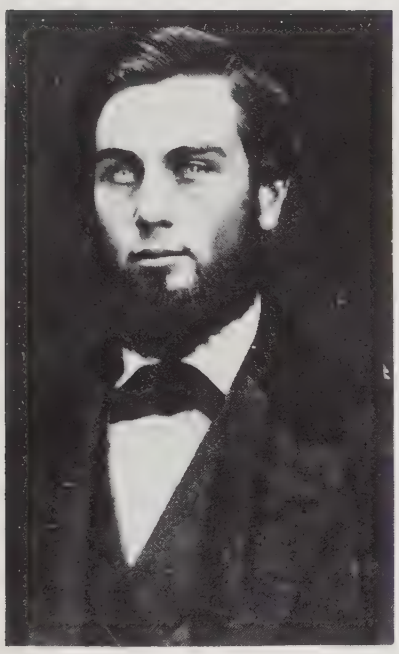

The eds and co-eds of the ten decades here pictured stimulate idle fancies of the fashions of the day and move the observer to tears or laughter . . .

from the Senior Class of Co-education

A hundred hirsute
facial fads
from Lincolnesque beards
to slickly Schick-shaved
chins . . .

A hundred styles of pompadours
severely
prim
and casually windblown . . .

But
more than these—one hundred capped and gowned
processions.

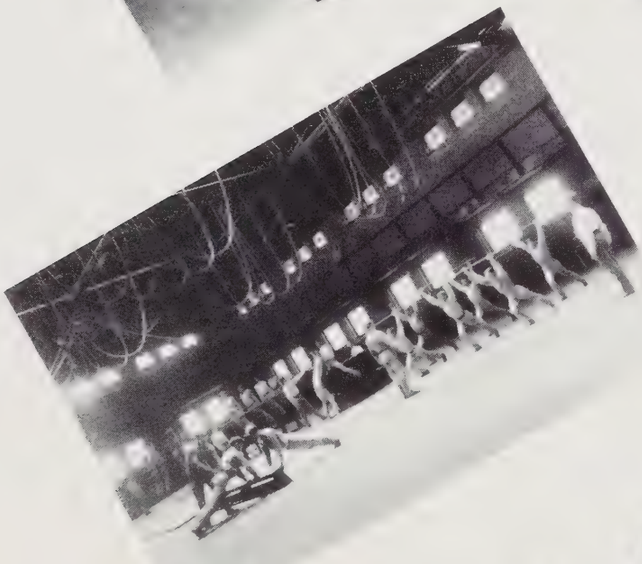

An Oberlin Yesterday . .

They posed and pedalled
and stunted
and battled

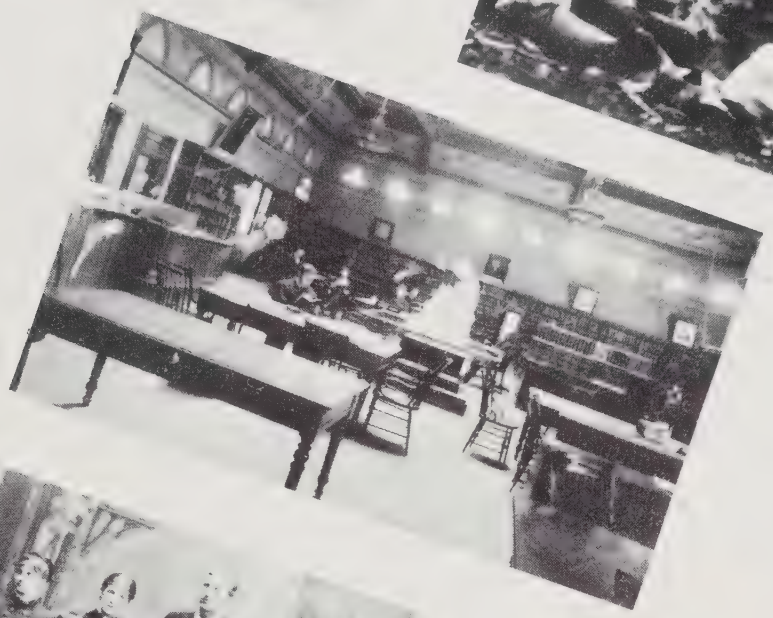

And listened in chapel
and danced outside—
Even as you and I?

And lunched
(and strayed)

And studied (sometimes)

And argued
and sang
And D. A.'ed and bulled—
Even as you and I?

GREYHOUND Gives You

A MAP-FULL OF TRAVEL BARGAINS!

No other transportation system even approaches the complete map-wide service offered by Greyhound buses! And, of course, no other type of travel can be enjoyed at such low fares—averaging less than 1½ cents per mile for round trips between principal cities. You'd have to pay 3 times as much to drive your own car—so make your next trip by Greyhound and save a sizable sum of money. There's no extra fare for the additional pleasure and convenience of a trip by Super-Coach.

WARNER COALS

It is our pleasure to make warm friends among the faculty and students.

Yumph!

¶ The Greeks had a word for it, too, they say . . . One hundred years ago the shy glance and fluttering eye lashes of the first Oberlin co-ed landed her man . . . Ten years ago it was called It . . . Yesterday the label was Glamour . . . Today it is Yumph. ¶ Yumph is collegiate. It is that part of the personality that can be developed like a negative. It is super-sensitive, working as well in dim light as full sun light. It is color blind, registering equally well with blond or brunette. Usually it's first made up and later retouched. That's Yumph and Yumph is You. ¶ Come over under our lights. Expose it to our lens. We will snap it, develop it, fix it, retouch it and project it for all the world to see . . . You have Yumph! And is not one picture worth all of ten thousand words?

How Medusa Products

Make Beautiful Homes

BEAUTIFUL EXTERIORS FOR BRICK, STUCCO OR CONCRETE HOMES that have become stained or streaked, can be had by painting with Medusa Portland Cement Paint. This paint makes a beautiful, permanent, cement-like finish that resists the chemical action of lime and alkalies, hence does not scale, peel or chip off. White, black and seven colors for your selection.

BRIGHT, CLEAN BASEMENTS. You can turn your dark and dismal cellar into a bright, cheerful, liveable basement by painting concrete, brick or unglazed tile walls with Medusa Portland Cement Paint.

CHEERFUL INTERIOR WALLS AND CEILINGS. The modern way to paint interior walls and ceilings is to use Medusa-Lite, the super flat wall finish. One coat of this inexpensive paint generally covers. No disagreeable odors. Dries to the touch in less than an hour. Seven beautiful pastel shades to choose from.

HOW TO PAINT CONCRETE FLOORS. Medusa Floor Coating really sticks to concrete floors, giving a beautiful, alkali and abrasion resisting surface. Can be had in black, white and six colors.

STUCCO HOMES OF LASTING BEAUTY are easily possible when Medusa Waterproofed Portland Cements (White and Gray) are used in the stucco. The waterproofing in these cements repels water at the surface of the stucco, preventing staining and making a permanently beautiful stucco home.

DRY BASEMENTS FOR NEW AND OLD HOMES are assured by using Medusa Waterproofed Gray Portland Cement in all concrete and mortar. Write and let us tell you how dry basements are made by the use of this cement.

Write today for color folders and information on any of the above mentioned Medusa Products.
